Miss Mabel Louise Keech

Dear Miss Keech:

Your letter of 4 September 1953 addressed to the Adjutant General, Department of the Army, stating that you represent an unnamed client claiming to be the son of one designated as John Ryan Clark has been received in this Bureau for reply.

You state that "John Ryan Clark was in the Navy between 1920 and 1922.." and mention that he came from the vicinity of Cleveland.

It is believed that you may be referring to the late John Ryan Clark, Yeoman third class, 282 81 31, United States Naval Reserve Force. The records disclose that his death occurred on 4 March 1925 while in an inactive duty status at Cleveland, Ohio.

The decedent indicated on naval documents that he was not married and had no children. The policy of the Department of the Navy prohibits the furnishing of data of a personal nature from the records of personnel to individuals upon request.

In the event that your client can furnish a certified copy of a birth certificate showing his relationship to the decedent further consideration may be given to the request in this case.

The self-addressed postal card you enclosed with your communication is herewith returned to you.

By direction of Chief of Naval Personnel:

Sincerely yours,

M. Drexel Rutherford, Esq.
Warrenville Road
Wheaton, Illinois

Dear Mr. Rutherford:

I have been to Andover to search for the names of the parents of Lemuel Clark. I had written ahead and was expected, and have never met with more kindness and cooperation from anyone than from Mrs. Dodge, Librarian of the Andover Historical Society, and Mr. Bassett, official of the South Parish Congregational Church, who has charge of their records. Mrs. Dodge allowed me to see all the manuscript notes of Miss Charlotte Helen Abbott, a native of Andover, and for many years genealogical editor of the Boston Transcript. Then Mrs. Dodge took me to the bank, introduced me to Mr. Bassett, who had all the church records taken from the vault, left me to examine everything contained therein. I found two small leather bound books, handwritten, which contained records of early baptisms, marriages and burials. Three, the title page, a page containing the original record of baptism of Jefferson Clark, and a page on which the marriage of Lemuel and Hannah Shattuck is entered, I had photographed, and these are enclosed herein. These are comparable to a camera film, and further copies may be made for attaching to applications. It seemed well to get these while the material was available. You will notice that it is almost impossible to know whether the name is Lemuel or Samuel, and I have found, in the published vital records of Andover, the marriage of "Clark, Samuel [Lemuel int.] of Dorchester, and Hannah Shattuck, Nov. 16, 1797."

I have examined Memorials of the Descendants of William Shattuck, published in 1855, and on pp. 149 and 223, found Hannah Shattuck, dau. Joseph [& Anna (Johnson)], b. in Andover, Sept. 8, 1774, where she d. Sept. 24, 1828, ae 54 y.) m.16 d. She m. (1), Lemuel Clark. He d. ----, leaving children. She m. (2), Caleb Abbott, who d. in Andover April 12, 1837. Her children, Thomas Jefferson, William, Joseph and Lewis. None is recorded in the published Andover records except "Jefferson". There is, however, under marriages, Clark, Hannah, and Caleb Abbott, Nov. 16, 1820, so we know that Lemuel Clark died before that date. Also, Abbott, Hannah, w. Caleb, [died] Sept. 4, 1828, ae 52 y. [a 54 gr.2].

In the notes of Charlotte Helen Abbott, mentioned above, I found under "stray lines", the following: "One Samuel Clark, it is said, came here from Braintree and built a home on land bought of Thomas Boynton, which was later known (1863) as the Compton home, on the road to Haggett's Pond. It was near Perry Jefferson's and Clark helped Jefferson to make soap. They rebuilt an old carpenter shop on the place for the employees of the soap factory." Doubtless this is the Lemuel for whom we are searching, called here "of Braintree", in his marriage record "of Dorchester". These places are adjacent, the boundary between them has been changed, I believe, at various times.

Although there are in the Library very many genealogies under Clark, a complete search of all failed to reveal a clue to this Lemuel, except a small typed study made by Mrs. Grace Pratt Bonsall, The Clark Family of Braintree. This probably is one of Mrs. Bonsall's own lines, for, as far as I know, she does no professional work, although she is frequently in the Library.

This line begins with Joseph[1] Clark who married Damaris Francis. He was born July 27, 1642, died Nov. 8, 1708. He had eight sons, four are carried forward. Under Samuel[3] (Jonathan[2], Joseph[1]), b. 1718, married 1742 Sarah Tileston, are two sons, not carried forward, Lemuel[4], b. June 9, 1746, and Samuel[4], born May 29, 1748. Either is the right age to have had the Lemuel we seek. Furthermore this is the first sign of the name Lemuel, except in one Connecticut Clark line. Mrs. Bonsall notes another Lemuel, but too late to have been father of our Lemuel, he must have been born circa 1770.

We have in the Library manuscript vital records of Braintree, these have been examined, as have the published records of Dorchester, but I have found no proper Lemuel.

All of this does not, I know, give you what you want, the names of Lemuel's parents. It is evident this was not an Andover Clark family, however.

My suggestions are to have the records of the early church of Dorchester examined, this is a handwritten volume deposited at Boston City Hall, and may be consulted for a small fee of fifty cents; to have the probate records and deeds at Norfolk county Court Houses, (Dedham) examined, and it might be well to look at the Transcipt index under Clark, at the Boston Public Library, to see whether Charlotte Helen Abbott ever had any inquiries concerning this man. Also, I will speak with Mrs. Bonsall and ask what references she has for her typed book.

One other thing: the name Jefferson, and the fact that he went to Virginia, prompted me to write to the Public Library at Charlottesville and ask if an obituary was available. The letter received in answer is enclosed. It seems as if there might be an obituary of Jefferson's second wife, which probably would not help in placing Lemuel's parents. I have nev r heard of Miss Vera Via, and know nothing whatever of her and havn't followed this up, for upon finding that Lemuel worked with Perry Jefferson, it seemed likely that that family might be the source of his name.

This Southern lead I will follow-up, or simply leave with you, as you wish.

I shall be glad to hear from you further, and continue in any direction which seems suitable and best to you.

Sincerely,

4 November - Ruth Thomas

P. S.

I have waited all this time for the enclosed photographs and was afraid they had been lost in the mail. They are not as I expected, the films have been "blown up". The Clark items are marked on the margin. Thus ≡.

Attention: Cleveland A. Dunn, Registar

Dear Compatriot:

I wonder if you can be of some assistance to me in recommending someone who could do a little genealogical research for me in New York.

I have a record of a William Clendening Clark, born May 4, 1865 in Nashville, Tennessee. He married Beatrice Maguire on May 3, 1899, presumably in New York. She died July 3, 1906 in New York City. He died March 1939 in St. Petersburg, Florida. There was also a son born from this union, John Ryan Clark, born June 16, 1904 in New York City. I would like to have a birth certificate, if possible, of John Ryan Clark and also a death certificate and marriage reference of the other two. I am especially interested in Beatrice Maguire because apparently her forebears would be in and around New York City, whereas William Clendening Clark is a son of George Hawes Clark born November 27, 1825 in Andover, Massachusetts. He died March 28, 1892 and married Barbara Shaw Dashiell in Nashville, Tennessee January 15, 1862. This Barbara Shaw Dashiell was born in Nashville, Tennessee April 17, 1840 and died April 13, 1903 in Lula, Mississippi.

I intend, of course, to try to trace back on the Andover angle and also on the Dashiell angle and if you can suggest anyone in your vicinity who might have some knowledge and be of assistance I will certainly appreciate it.

Yours very truly,

M. D. Rutherford

Dear Mr. Rutherford:-

Your letter of September 10th was received. Mrs. Maddux has been confined to her room for over two years with nurses due to a heart condition.

She did have the enclosed information in the family Bible which we believe is what you want. If you would like any additional information, let us know and we will do our best to help you out.

Mrs. Maddux has asked that you remind Jack of the picture of his father which he borrowed in order to have a copy made. This is the only picture she has of Jack's father and would like very much to have it returned.

Yours very truly,

WS'S WALTER SCOTT, JR.

P.S. For your information I am Mrs. Maddux's grandson and met Jack when he was here in Memphis.

My dear Margaret.-

Your letter was received a few days ago and I was so glad to hear from you and dear little Jack.

Do hope your sister will be in Texas this fall so you can stop over for a few days with us on your way to see her. I am anxious to know you and to see little Jack so please write me when you are planning to go and get your ticket through Memphis.

I sent Brother the picture of Jack with and the Cap - both pictures were adorable but I thought may be he looked like that one best -

We are driving over next week to spend about ten days with

Brother in Asheville North Carolina
He lives in St. Petersburg, Florida
but is in Asheville for the summer
on account of his business.

My grand Children are fine
now - the sun baths have helped them more than anything and we are hoping they will not have any trouble this winter.

I am sorry to hear of your sister's illness and hope she will be well again soon.

Be sure to let me know a few days ahead when you will be in Memphis for fear I might be down on the plantation.

Am looking forward to seeing you and little Jean so please don't disappoint us. With love for you and Jack,

Aunt Mary Allen

Dear Margaret.

Thank you for sending me a photo of little Jack- What a fine looking boy he is Sure that anyone could be proud of- I should like so much to see him.

Things have been practically dead here since the boom-

I was interested in the building business when we first came here but the slump but us out of business completely & it has been hard to find anything to do here when real estate is not selling-

Our baby Nancy Lou was two years old on April 13th she is just beginning to talk now - That is to put words together- She has enjoyed good health ever since she was born She was born in Cleveland & I did not see her until she was five months old.

Things are looking a bit more hopeful here in the last few weeks & Nancy & myself are always hoping we can take a trip north- We would like

So glad to come to Chicago now you and little Jack I am sure he will be a great comfort to you - I wish we were situated so we could see you both often - I feel like I should have a little gold mine for awhile as I have had a hard struggle of it for the past few years.
I wrote you two letters about the time Nancy Lou was born - one was returned & never heard from the other -
We are glad to have your present address. Mrs. Maddux has never seen Nancy Lou & she has 10 grandchildren which we have never seen - so we are beginning to feel as though we are isolated down here.

Nancy Lou & Nancy join me in love and best wishes to you and little Jack & We hope that you will let us hear from you

Sincerely

W. O Clark

again I will try to answer immediately-I cannot tell who the baby looks like yet but as he grows older I can tell you can. I never saw Jack until he was six years old but I have some pictures of him when he was quite small-will send to you if you care to have them.
You can keep them for the baby-
We have a baby in our family
Now Eleanor has a little boy, born the 30th of July - we are all very foolish over him because he is the only boy in our family. He is just getting to be interesting.
I do hope you and little Jack are well and will be all right.
I am enclosing you a check -
please get something for yourself and the baby for me - would love to have done it myself but has no idea the size of either of you -

My dear Margaret,-

I have thought of you so often especially since I received your letter with the cute picture of dear little Jack in it. I know you think I am not appreciative but my dear I am not. I have been very busy besides I am a very poor Correspondent- ad one to get letters but slow to answer them. but when you write write me all about yourself and the baby- am glad you are back at work and do hope you will not be so worried.

Did you know that little Jack is the last boy in the Clark family- My father, Jack's father, Jack and little Jack- so you see the name depends on him-

Do hope you and the baby will have a happy Christmas and the New year will be bright for you

Love to you and little Jack,

Aunt Mary Allen.
